

An invite to come racing.....

As the John Smith's Grand National meeting is still some seven months away (although we are sure you will want to plan ahead), the start to the true 09/10 jumps season is nearly upon us and we're delighted to be kicking it off again with the eagerly awaited toteswinger Flexi Betting Old Roan Chase, which this year will be staged on Saturday 24th October. The 2008 race was contested by many of jump racing's stars and was won in emphatic style by the Nigel Twiston-Davies trainer, Knowhere. The following day (Sunday 25th October), Aintree celebrates its annual family fun day in our Freaky Family Funday, featuring entertainment and fun for all the family, with the added bonus that on both of these days, kids go free!

Just a month later, two races over the Grand National course in what is now a firmly established Grand National trail will witness the a true countdown to the festival in April and with Christmas activities marking the start of a very special season, this day has a very warm and friendly atmosphere and will even witness a visit from Father Christmas and his real reindeer.

Finally, our showcase event, the John Smith's Grand National meeting is a date for your diary, and in 2010 we are offering Young Farmers a special discount on all Thursday tickets and badges.

Aintree Racecourse is offering members a special 20% discount off all ticket prices for all of the above events.
